Sun in Gemini:

Gemini - Key Words: The Sinister and the Minister

"The flake on a mission, or the flake without a mission. Who is to say?" Geminis are just their own kind of person. Now what is wrong with that I ask you? Geminis may find their mark in life with the help of a seeing eye dog, then shoot the dog for knowing more than them.

You can always tell a bored Gemini by the disgusted look on their face while making love the same way, over and over again. The "recreational love making sign" is what we call Gemini natives, because they treat making love like a vacation. Why go away from home, Gemini, when you can have it your way, any day? Love making is not enough by themselves, they must do it with their friends. That is to say, he or she must be a friend to the Gemini. Yeah, that's it!

To say that Gemini natives are nervous is an understatement, as they must be busy doing at least 7 things all at the same time. They need that pressure and stress to keep them going, its like being high on Helium, ALL THE TIME!

The lungs and arms are the weakest bodily parts here, it's because of all of that blasted gesturing that they do, as if they were bringing planes in for a landing on an aircraft carrier. Gemini people should get lots of sleep to heal that paranoid, weird and nervous behavior that is likely to arise without warning, scaring people to death! Gemini is the jokester who leaves humorous messages on your answering machine, never letting you know who it was that called in the first place.

The typical Gemini's mouth is like a "chattering teeth toy", you know what I mean, the teeth you wind up and put on the table and it goes on and on and on. There should be a subtitle on the side of the box of this toy that says "These used to belong to a Gemini". Gemini's have the capability of verbally cutting anything in front of their mouth like a knife through butter, with the same ease. No matter who they are, or how big the competition is! Sometimes they can get carried away a wee bit much though, but are they ever full of remorse afterwards? Never! As a matter of fact, they find a good verbal thrashing much more satisfying than sex.

When Gemini people apply for a job, their job application may read like the Queen of England has applied in person, or perhaps the President of the US, with the possibility that everything on it (including their name) may be little white lies, or classic WHOPPERS. Gemini people are somewhat dishonest (at times) and a whole lot promiscuous (especially you ladies), and because of the duality of this sign, they can expect to be married more than once, spiritually or physically.

To say Geminis are reluctant to grow up is really understated because Gemini's have no intention of doing so. They are perfect just as they are, so why try to improve on perfection?

Gemini's can express love all day long, but it tends to be all in the head box, and not in the gear box. Gemini's can conceptualize love to the end of time, but putting it into practical form just ain't gonna happen. Why? Mainly because Gemini's are one of the mental signs of the zodiac and do not have the full emotional capacity of, say, an emotional sign like Cancer, Scorpio or Pisces. Besides, if Gemini doesn't like the atmosphere around them or the person, they just change the scenery mentally!

Gemini is another sign that also loves to rearrange furniture, so be careful when you come home late at night and jump into bed in this house, you might be in for an awful surprise. At the same time you may come home to the Gemini house and find strange workmen doing all kinds of things, without you even being informed about it, and it doesn't matter if the Gemini native lives there or not!

Children to Geminis (after a certain point) take on the characteristics of Yard Apes, or Yard Gorillas. Who are these little people who intrude on precious Gemini time, and NERVES. A Gemini's idea of telling bedtime stories includes the Headless Horseman, Night Stalker, The Texas Chain Saw Massacre & The Shining. The kind of stories that keep kids from coming back for more, or ever bothering them again!

Gemini's hobbies are: Secrets, manipulating others, & fantasies of any kind. The Positive traits that Geminis are known for include: Flirtation, unreliability, no restrictions, & no total commitments. After all, you have to leave some time for the gusto right?

Moon in Capricorn:

The Emotions - This is what I really need to be complete.

Moon in Capricorn natives are not happy campers in general as there is too much of a Hitler complex that needs controlling. Moon in Capricorn people need to add lots of fiber to their diet to avoid constipated feelings, constipated body, and constipated mind. Moon in Capricorn natives often suffer from arthritis or aches and pains in bodily joints or in the structural bones or back as a result of stress.

The Moon in Capricorn person has all of the spiritual awareness of a stone and I'm not talking about crystals or Stonehenge either. To be fair, in the more evolved Capricorn, we find great teachers and Masters, but the standard everyday variety has their own needs in mind, and they can be extremely selfish, worrying about their own desires, and pretty soon their own needs become their master and their teacher. The Moon in Capricorns radar is always on for the two most important things in their lives, which is power and money and their acquisition makes them happy and secure.

Moon in Capricorn natives truly believe that all relationships that start out in their teens as difficult, will continue for life much the same way as though they deserve nothing better for themselves. This is their way of convincing themselves they are right when things that inevitably go wrong, go wrong. Last but not least, when you allow a negative thought pattern embedded in your emotions, it will take a very big and brawny man or woman to change your mind.

Capricorns are loyal beyond the call of duty in relationships, and will stay there even when the last act is over, the fat lady has sung her merry tune, and everyone has long since forgotten the whole incident. They hang on to people, places and things, especially children until they get a cosmic slap in the face to let go, and live their own life.

These days, dear Capricorn native, the only safe lover is one that sleeps all the time. That's one way to keep them loyal, now isn't it, Moon in Capricorn?

The Moon in Capricorn natives need a lover who will gently beat them beside the head with any object that is handy to get them to be noticed. Once they find this person, Moon in Capricorn natives know they are somewhat sincere. Group love-making for these natives is standing in the corner contemplating their navel. Moon in Capricorn people are the types that feel a gift is just as good as making love. " Here is a dollar for your troubles my dear, or how about something practical like a toaster oven.", says the person with Moon in Capricorn.

Mercury in Taurus:

Mercury represents the thought process and what the mind sends to the body. Mercury rules how we communicate, what we talk about, and what we think about. Bearing that in mind, here is what they are apt to think and talk about.

You must talk to, not at this person. By the time these natives take in, assemble, mull around, and decide to do something, the subject is closed, and no one really cares anymore. The stubborn mind just . . . for the heck of it!

Lovemaking for them is like falling into a hole, they don't know what happened, it was just there, and so it goes. This sign epitomizes how Adam and Eve got into trouble in the first place, making love in the jungle and eating apples off the trees. Make love on a pool table, the surroundings may not be right, but the cloth is soft.

Here is the person who invented "Have I Got A Deal For You" without a second thought about honesty or integrity. Once you have hard feelings or miscommunications with this person, it will be a cold day in hell before they talk to you again, for they are the greatest sulkers in the universe.

Mercury in Taurus' ability to make decisions is so slow, that if you take this person to the horse races (never happen) to bet on a horse, by the time they make up their mind, all of the races will be over, the horses would be watered, fed, bred and put to sleep and the jockeys would be over in the local pub, drunk! On the other hand, they have such great powers of concentration, that you could drop a torpedo down their shorts, and it wouldn't phase them in the slightest.

You can usually find these people squirreled away in some back room of an accounting firm, or working with money, facts and figures. They take their work so seriously in this arena that they treat this money as if it were their very own, and some day it may very well be.

If you have to go on a business trip with this person, take them to a much different motel/hotel than they are used to going to. Not only will it totally disorient them, but you may wake up in the middle of the night to find them walking around banging into the walls, all the while crying for that other hotel like a child who lost his teddy bear.

Venus in Taurus:

Venus defined is: Romance, the action that brings satisfaction. Food, flowers, little chubby people shooting arrows, fertility, and lots of groveling. Here is how the art of love is interpreted by this placement of Venus:

Kissing a person with this placement has all of the sensitivity of a wet sponge hitting you in the face, again, and again and all of that with no foreplay.

I am woman hear me roar, is the battle cry of the female Venus in Taurus. Picture a bull getting ready to freight train a man in a funny costume with a cape yelling "come and get me" in Spanish! Ah yes, love sweet love, in its most primitive state, this is the essence of these fun lovers.

Here is the typical Venus in Taurus explaining what belongs to them: "Everything," of course. Implements to have on hand for Venus in Taurus must include the following: Ankle and wrist bracelets, a 24 hr. pocket pager and an interrogation manual. "I will make you over in my image", says the overly possessive Venus in Taurus.

It would be wise for their partners to own or operate a restaurant offering the finest cuisine or a flower shop with a full stock of long stemmed roses. Have on hand a pre-recorded tape of the endless loop variety that keeps saying "I love you . . . I adore you . . . I love you . . . I adore you. . .", because objects of their love are guaranteed to run out of gas, way before they do! They also have the ability to magnetize and imprison what they want. After all, what is theirs, is theirs!

Mars in Virgo:

Mars defined: "Its get down and dirty time". Raw passions unleashed upon suspecting and unsuspecting persons. Actions desiring prompt and equal reactions of any kind. To get very specific, this is how this great bundle of energy is used in the personal natal chart. This is how that energy interacts with their surroundings.

To some Virgo natives, romance is much too messy, so why do it! To others romance should be done often, with a little less mess. Here is the romantic partner who will bitch and moan about the quality of a condom. Details, details, details. Expect a complete internal and external examination before, during and after romance, which may be viewed as very messy, time consuming, and unnecessary.

Now here is a personal word of advice. If Mars in Virgo feels that they are doing all the work putting a magical romantic evening together, and don't feel appreciated for the effort, expect to hear about it, and hear about it, and hear about it. So, to make things short, make sure to hold up your end of it, which ever end that turns out to be.

Never, ever, ever give this person alcohol to get them into a romantic mood, all you get is the mouth of a sharp knife, . . . sharpened!
