 Chapter 1 *****

Your individuality. Your personality.
Your emotional needs. Your mentality.

To find the ideal profession, you have to know yourself first. There are activities you are suited for according to your nature, and others you are not. Your ideal occupation should favor the expression of your individuality (Sun) and your personality (Rising Sign), satisfy your emotional needs (Moon) and permit the development of your intellect (Mercury).

YOUR INDIVIDUALITY: Sun in Gemini

You were born under the sign of GEMINI and your ruling planet is Mercury, the planet of communication. You like to converse, to communicate, to meet people and see different places, to travel and to always be moving.

Your Sun sign is MUTABLE and this will impel you to function as a COMMUNICATOR, either in thought or action. You won't feel comfortable in a leadership position, nor in a profession that compels you to stay in the same place all the time. One of your functions is to bring together people with mutual interests, to operate as an intermediary or to offer a service.

Gemini is an AIR sign and this makes you curious, sociable and mentally very active. All occupations that stimulate your intellect and offer the possibility of communicating will be very favorable. You need variety, change, travel and the exchange of ideas. You have the ability to accomplish two tasks at the same time. However, you will have to learn to be constant, patient and to control the speed of your thoughts.

You are very curious and your mind always solicits more information. Your young and jovial attitude will permit you to get acquainted with others easily and your great adaptability allows you to adjust to any conversation. You may be a bit immature and naive in your judgments, which many times could lead to entanglements in problems or complex and unexpected relationships. You are very sharp-witted and ideas and solutions that are completely original might come to you.

Although you like freedom and tend to get bored easily with people, you are very dependent on those you admire or love. You like to be with your close friends, especially to have the ability to comment on and talk about everything you experience. You are also very attracted to trips to novel and different places.

You were born to study, to write, to learn and to communicate. Your principal function in life is to receive and to give verbal as well as written information. You were born to unite people, to sponsor businesses, to create solutions, and to teach.

To evolve, your spirit will have to learn to control restlessness, anxiety and nervousness that sometimes hurries you and doesn't permit you to adequately accomplish your plans. You will have to learn to be more persevering and less influenced by others, not to speak so much of your projects and to accomplish more, to concentrate on your objectives, and to avoid getting entangled in discussions or gossip.

YOUR PERSONALITY: Ascendant Leo

Others see you as a strong, decisive and proud person. You convey great personal assurance and are the center of attraction wherever you appear. You express yourself very dramatically with a degree of exaggeration, but also show a great sense of humor and enthusiasm. You are likely to develop your creative and artistic talents in all directions and also have a great gift for seduction.

You are congenial, happy and spontaneous, which allows you to communicate and socialize with ease. In spite of this, you are very selective with the company you keep. You have authority and the ability to direct others. If you have a weaker Sun sign, this ascendant will be very fortunate for you. Otherwise it will increase your inflexibility, obstinacy and restlessness.

The profession you choose will have to permit you to be the boss, to have the power to make your own decisions, to do your job without pressure or control, and it definitely has to bring you in touch with the public; avoid subordinate positions or jobs where you would be unable to show your creativity.

YOUR EMOTIONAL NEEDS: Moon in Capricorn

You are not very expressive with your emotions, although they are very intense or deep. You are insecure and feel that if you open up too much it will make you vulnerable. Your external image tends to be rather cold or distant. You have a deep inner loneliness that you attempt to fill with your activities and also a tendency to melancholia, depression or social isolation. You will have to overcome your inner repression and develop more confidence in your emotional world without waiting for recognition or approval from others. Avoid judging or criticizing others.

You have a strong sense of responsibility and perform your work very efficiently. You are likely to occupy important positions and to reach social prestige. You view life realistically and are persevering in the pursuit of your objectives. You are very ambitious and know how to assume responsibility. You project organization and leadership ability, and your ideas tend to be very well established and structured. You are cautious with the management of your money and have a great deal of common sense. You can find solutions to your problems because you are practical.

Subconsciously, you have a strong desire to have power and control over your life. In previous lives you may have occupied positions of authority and social prestige. You were accustomed to receiving respect, honor and cooperation from the people who were accompanying you, and you felt that you were in the public eye. This caused you to be concerned about your image and to maintain a life style governed by respectability, luxury or tradition. Because of this, today you feel sure about the respect of the place that you have to occupy socially, but not so sure in your emotional world. In this incarnation you have to learn to combine your sense of power with your feelings. You have to experience life with less preoccupation and more flexibility, and avoid trying to have control of every situation.

The profession you choose will have to satisfy your emotional need to find a solid base, to have the possibility of growth, to reach positions of authority, independence and power. You need to feel proud of the position you occupy and to identify with it. You also have the need to receive recognition, rewards and the possibility of increasing your prestige daily.

YOUR MENTALITY: Mercury in Taurus

Your mind tends to be a bit slow and you come to conclusions only after much thought and inner debates. Your reasoning is very sound, logical and practical, and you may experience difficulty with abstract subjects (e.g. mathematics). You are likely to have very good visual memory and will be skillful with your hands. You have aesthetic tastes and are strongly attracted to arts in general. It is important that you are not pushed or hurried when trying to make a decision, as this will confuse you. You have well-defined and clear purposes, which gives you constancy in regard to your goals. You have a strong tendency to reject new ideas, as you prefer traditional, conservative and classic things. This astrological position is very good for business and management.

Your way of communicating is soft, warm and sparing of words. You are very reserved with respect to your private life. You have to learn to express your thoughts without fear of conflicts.

 Chapter 2 *****

Your abilities and your emotions, inhibitions and strengths.
Hidden talents or challenges, Karma.

The location of the planets in the houses and the relationship between them can increase or decrease their power. Aspects of the Sun are related to our strength and those of the Moon affect the emotional world and are expressed on a subconscious level.

Aspects that affect your INDIVIDUALITY:

Sun in 11th house:

Your sociability and ability to relate to others will bring you in contact with influential and important personalities, especially men, who will benefit you in the future. Success in your life is related to the relationships you become involved with and your participation in certain public enterprises. You could have friends that will occupy positions of authority, such as managers, directors, supervisors etc., who will offer a helpful hand in your career.

You tend to have great hopes and an overall perspective on life. You are idealistic and prepared to fight until you achieve your goals. On the other hand, you can perform very well in group activities and could become a leader in some of them. You are concerned about social problems and like to be involved with the renovation and improvement of life in your society.

Sun Trine Saturn:

You are responsible and have a strong sense of loyalty that is not altered with time. You rely on your patience and have the necessary perseverance to evolve in life. Your progress in life is likely to be gradual and prospering. Over time you will reach great personal maturity that will allow you to act with moderation and balance in every situation.

Sun Sextile Jupiter:

You have an optimistic attitude that will allow you to achieve your objectives without much effort. You radiate happiness and enthusiasm, which will increase your popularity and the possibility of receiving favors from those who like you. You are inclined to be a bit lazy and are fond of comfort. Your optimism could cause you to take everything too lightly and to neglect the details. Regardless, a touch of luck will always be with you and help you to leap forward.

Aspects that affect your EMOTIONS:

Moon in 6th house:

Your daily occupation is very important to you, and you are caring, sensitive and dedicated to your work. You are protective and very considerate of your co-workers or the personnel in your charge. Because of your great sensitivity, you may change jobs often. You try to find the warmth of your home in your occupational area. You could do very well in any industry serving the public or in activities related to medicine, diet or therapy.

Moon Square Jupiter:

You are likely to be too generous, which could generate problems for you. You have to learn to place limits on your offerings and not to rely so much on others. You have a tendency to exaggeration, showiness and a certain extravagance. You tend to be too confident of your possibilities, which makes you prone to have losses in business or litigations. You can be indulgent, lazy and negligent. To avoid problems, you have to learn to be more organized and to put order in your life.

Moon Trine Pluto:

You are very sure of yourself and do everything authoritatively. You could be a leader in groups or work in places with a large number of people. You are protective and have the necessary strength to help those who need it. You have the ability to regenerate and restore yourself completely after any crisis you may encounter.

Moon Sextile Neptune:

Throughout your life you are likely to have many psychic experiences. You have to learn to rely on your intuition and to develop your spirituality. You are attracted to the hidden sciences and will have great success in anything where you could apply your perceptive powers. You also have ability for music, art, the theater and dance.

HIDDEN TALENTS: Cancer on 12th house cusp

You have to learn to express your emotions freely. Although in general you are extroverted, you also may have some inner inhibitions that you try to hide with friendliness or sociableness. It would be wise to recollect some of your childhood experiences, because they could impel you to act impulsively. You are more confident showing authority and aggressiveness than affection and passivity. You must learn to combine your priorities harmoniously. Often your feelings may be hurt by thoughtless remarks of others, due to the lack of sensitivity and sensibility.

This influence could bring serious family problems, animosity between members of the family, difficulties in establishing yourself firmly in a place or in making real estate investments, and also a bad reputation.

 Chapter 3 *****
Expansion (Jupiter) and retraction (Saturn).
To give and to receive.

EXPANSION: Jupiter in Aries

Your sense of expansion manifests through your authority. You have a talent for leadership and a strong desire for freedom of action. In spite of your ability to learn from your mistakes, you can be quite egocentric and proud. You are confident in your decisions and prepared to face any adversity alone. Growth in your material world will depend on finding possibilities to develop your initiatives or occupying a position of power.

Jupiter in 9th house:

You are interested in religion and philosophy, enjoy life abroad, other countries, cultures and languages, and definitely should travel. You would be very happy and could do well in a different country from that of your birth. If you don't settle in another place, you thoroughly enjoy each of your trips. A college education will be very important in your life; you could reach a doctorate or other outstanding title in your profession. Expansion of your life is related to the level of your knowledge.

Jupiter Square Moon:

It is probable that you may have had overly indulgent parents and because of that tend to be very complacent today. Avoid carelessness, laziness and don't let things slide. You also should avoid surrounding yourself with people who protect you too much and make decisions for you. It is important that you learn to discipline yourself and to direct your energies more carefully.

Jupiter Sextile Sun:

You have a very positive view about life and the abundance of the universe. You believe in your own prosperity and are generous with others. Your positive, happy, and optimistic attitude will help you to expand your enterprises, to improve your income and to enjoy what you do.

RETRACTION: Saturn in Aquarius

The inhibition principle affects your ability to integrate with groups or to follow others' ideas. You have strong powers of concentration and your thinking is scientific and democratic. Inventive and new approaches come easily to you, as well as abstract symbolism and mathematics. You have many ambitions and work hard to achieve them. Your attitude toward people is responsible and you are loyal in friendships. You have a strong sense of freedom, but this will prevent you from working well in groups. You may also be selfish and resent doing anything that does not please you. You tend to have too much intellectual pride and may lack gratitude and commitment.

Saturn in 7th house:

You can perform better working with others than alone, however, your principal frustration will be the difficulty in finding a perfect associate. This placement hinders, delays or frustrates any kind of association and could bring losses. You have to learn to rely on your own authority and to work independently; if you find an associate, try to become aware with whom you are dealing. Subconsciously, you recall a paternal figure and seek the protection from older people, and this could make you rely more on them than you need to. You are responsible and may direct your desire to achieve into areas involving the public. You transmit an image of confidence and maturity to others.

Saturn Square Mercury:

Your ability to communicate and to express yourself freely may be strongly inhibited. Communication with your superiors or other persons of authority is likely to be scarce or non-existent. You are responsible, reserved, shy and have great respect for everything traditional. Your insecurity can lead you to be indecisive and frustrated with your studies. You could become a loner and have a tendency to depression. Because of your fears, you can be inflexible and cling to structured ways of thinking.

Saturn Square Venus:

You tend to feel unloved or rejected by or indifference from one of your parents (probably your father). This makes you shy and unable to demonstrate your emotions freely, and minimizes your ability to progress in life. Chronically discontented, you often sacrifice happiness for duty. You tend to be on the defensive and fear rejection and lack of acceptance. If you don't overcome your inner complex, this aspect could bring sentimental as well as economical failures and loneliness. To solve this problem, you have to evaluate each one of your talents, increase your ability to love, and rely on each of your goals without waiting for approval from others.

Saturn Trine Sun:

You have a good sense of organization and are able to direct your energies adequately to achieve success in life. You are stable, responsible and persevering. This astrological aspect enables you to achieve your goals thanks to your ability to concentrate and the confidence you have in yourself. You have a true sense of authority, which allows you to exercise it naturally. You will have good relationships with older people or those in powerful positions.

Success in life depends to a great extent on the balance between giving and receiving, expanding and retracting. Even dwelling on the one and only failure you may have had is like not attempting anything.
